'Way Back Yonder'

This bank was serving the people of Clarksburg and Harrison county years before the majority of us living here now were born.

BEFORE LINCOLN WAS PRESIDENT.

With each succeeding year since our resources have steadily increased and the confidence of our customers and friends grown stronger. Our facilities, office equipment, etc., are all that modern ideas can provide. Our resources are ample to take care of our customers in a manner to warrant their continuous business. We want your checking account, no matter how small and will give the same care as the largest one we have.

GOVERNOR'S UNCLE IS HURT IN RUNAWAY.

FAIRMONT, June 18.—B. Glascock, who yesterday celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday at his home at Barrackville with a family reunion, was the victim of a serious accident just at the close of the day. As he was driving some of his relatives to the traction station, the team ran off and he was thrown from the vehicle. He is an uncle of Governor Glascock.

MRS. QUEEN DEAD.

Mrs. Armstead Queen, aged 70 years, died at Johnstown at 10 o'clock Monday night as the result of old age. The husband survives. She was the mother of Mrs. H. F. Sutton, J. C. Queen and O. O. Queen, all residing at the New Fair Grounds addition; and Miletus, Bernery and Merrill Queen at home.

Arbutus Park

Do you want a nice plot of ground at the right price for a country home, right on the street car line, we have it at Arbutus, lot of over an acre, fine oak trees on it and a fine place for a bungalow, price

$850

1/4 down, balance one, two and three years, interest 6 per ct.

We have also a small lot right on the edge of the street car line in the same addition price one-fourth down, balance in one, two and three years, 6 per ct. interest.

These are all the lots that are left that were originally owned by the Arbutus Land Co., and we have put prices on them that should be low enough to make it worth while for the purchaser.

Every Day the Telegram Want Ads.

Find Buyers for Real Estate

Some days they find a great many buyers—every day they find some buyers. Your property, persistently and well advertised, may be sold, for its real value—without any other expense than that of classified advertising!

And the expense for a successful campaign of want advertising—ending only when the property is sold—is so trivial that any property owner can afford it
